75 years—Remembering Pearl Harbor

The 75th anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor is an opportunity to honor the sacrifice and dedication of our "Greatest Generation" both civilian and military, in the incredible sacrifices on December 7, 1941. It would thrust America into World War II, changing Hawaii and America forever and continue to define their place in the world. The events of that date triggered our resolve as a nation, our can-do attitude and resourcefulness and an unmatched commitment to the defense of freedom.

On Pearl Harbor Day, the American flag should be flown at half-staff until sunset to honor those who died as a result of the attack. Warning sirens and naval forces in Hawaii. National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day, which is also observed on December 7, was created to honor the 2,403 citizens of the United States who were killed on December 7. (Some had entered World War II. The Japanese had wanted "A DATE WHICH WILL IN INFAMY" to be flown at half-staff until sunset).

In all, the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor crippled or destroyed nearly 200 American ships and more than 300 airplanes. Dry docks and airfields were likewise destroyed and/or damaged. About 2,500 men were killed and another 1,000 were wounded. But the Japanese had failed to cripple the Pacific Fleet. By the 1940s, battleships were no longer the most important naval vessels: Aircraft carriers were, and as it happened, all of the Pacific Fleet’s carriers were away from the base on December 7. (Some had returned to the mainland and others were delivering planes to troops on Midway and Wake Islands.)

Moreover, the Pearl Harbor assault had left the base’s now-vital facilities defenseless. The ship exploded and sank with more than 1,000 men trapped inside. Next, torpedoes pierced the shell of the battleship USS Oklahoma. With 400 sailors aboard, the Oklahoma lost her balance, rolled onto her side and slipped under water. By the time the attack was over, every battleship in Pearl Harbor—USS Arizona, USS Oklahoma, USS California, USS West Virginia, USS Utah, USS Maryland, USS Pennsylvania, USS Tennessee and USS Nevada—had sustained significant damage.

Chamber Holiday Events

The annual Chamber of Commerce sponsored Christmas Parade, tree lighting and Santa’s visit on the 3rd of December were very successful. The Opera Theatre won first place for their unique float in the parade. April Parke and Heidi Hersey each won a Merchant Basket and sixty-five children had the opportunity to visit with Santa and let him know what their Christmas wishes were.

The Chamber will hold the annual Decorate-the-Town contest December 19th - 23rd. Private homes and businesses will be judged with the winners being awarded gift certificates from the Chamber of Commerce.

The annual Glenns Ferry Food/Toy Basket program will start delivering baskets the morning of Friday, December 23rd at 9:00am from the Veterans Hall. Prior to the distribution of the food baskets the sorting, and packing will be done during the week of December 19th starting at 9:00am every morning at the Veterans Hall. Anyone wishing to help with this part of the project should just show up, or call Dale Smith (366-2710 or 596-4171).

The Glenns Ferry “event of the year,” the annual Glenns Ferry Chamber of Commerce Banquet will be held the evening of January 28th, at the Veteran’s Hall. Anyone wishing to make a nomination for Citizen of the Year should turn the nomination in by January 13th.

CHRISTMAS HUMOR

After being away on business for a week before Christmas, Tom thought it would be nice to bring his children a special treat. "How about some perfume?" he asked the cosmetics clerk.

She showed him a bottle costing $50.

"That’s a bit much," said Tom, so she returned with a smaller bottle for $30.

"That’s still quite a bit," Tom grunted.

Growing disgusted, the clerk brought out bigger bottles.

Tom grew agitated, "What I mean," he said, "is I’d like to see something real cheap." So the clerk handed him a mirror.

The Adult Learning Program at the Library

The library is pleased to announce an upcoming informal adult learning opportunity. The theme for this 4-part series of discussions is “Pushing the Limits.” Participants will engage in discussions that revolve around how the human race has pushed the limits of survival, knowledge, communication, and connection. Along with short video clips of author interviews and clips that apply topics discussed into real life scenarios, participants will receive a free copy of a book that ties into the ideas presented each evening. Each program will be held at the library from 6-7:30. To register for one or all of the events please contact the library. This opportunity has been made possible by a generous grant from the National Science Foundation and the CALIFA Group. This opportunity was only awarded to 44 libraries nationwide and is specially designed to be relevant and interesting to rural communities. The format is informal and no science knowledge training or background is required. Please join us for a thought provoking evening of discussion. It is also not necessary to read the books ahead of time but if you wish to, copies are available at the library.

Recipes Worth Trying

Lunch Lady Cafeteria Rolls
NO MIXER NEEDED

This dough also makes excellent cinnamon rolls. The recipe is large enough that you can do 24 rolls and 20-24 cinnamon rolls. Serves: 48 rolls

Ingredients
3 cups warm water 2 tbsp. + 1 1/2 tsp yeast
1 tbsp. sugar 1 1/4 cup butter, melted
1/4 cup milk 2 eggs, slightly beaten
1 tbsp. 1/4 tsp salt 1/4 cup sugar
10 cups all-purpose flour 1/4 cup shortening

Instructions:
Add yeast and sugar to warm water and let sit for 3-5 minutes. Add melted butter (cooled), milk, eggs and salt to yeast mixture. In a large bowl combine flour and sugar. Stir until combined. Using your hand, crumble shortening into flour until it is barely noticeable. Pour liquid yeast mixture into flour mixture. Using a large wooden spoon, stir until well combined. When dough starts to come together, ditch the spoon and use your hand to knead the dough for approx. 2 minutes until it comes together in a nice ball. Place dough in a warm area, covered, until it doubles in size. (I do this in my oven. While I mix the dough I heat the oven to 195 degrees. then I turn the oven off right before I put the covered dough in. This step cuts back on time dramatically. Dough will be double in 15-30 minutes.) After dough has doubled in size, punch it down and knead with your hands one more time for 2 minutes. If dough is still sticky sprinkle it with flour as needed. Prepare pans and form dough into 2 inch balls and place onto cooking sheets. I like rolls to be touching so I have to be patient when they are done. If you don’t like that place them at least 1-2 inches apart on your cooking sheet. I cook mine close together in 9x13 pans. When dough is formed into rolls and placed on pans, cover and allow to rise until almost double and again. I put my pans top of the oven while it is preheating and this step usually only takes 15-20 minutes. Bake at 400 degrees for 12-14 minutes.

Could You Become a Citizen?

The United States has a long history of welcoming immigrants from all parts of the world. During the last decade, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) welcomed more than 6.6 million naturalized citizens into the fabric of our nation. In fiscal year 2016, 741,548 people were naturalized.

Deciding to become a U.S. citizen can be a very important milestone in an immigrant’s life. Individuals must demonstrate a commitment to the unifying principles that bind us as Americans and, in return, will enjoy many of the rights and privileges that are fundamental to U.S. citizenship.

The actual civics test is NOT a multiple choice test. During the naturalization interview, an USCIS officer will ask you up to 10 questions from the list of 100 questions in English. You must answer correctly 6 of the 10 questions to pass the civics test.

The following are questions from a practice test covering information about our country that people hoping to become citizens must know. How many of these questions do you know the answer to?

1. What did the Emancipation Proclamation do?
   A. ended World War I
   B. gave women the right to vote
   C. gave the United States independence from Great Britain
   D. freed slaves in most Southern states

2. Who vetoed bills?
   A. the Speaker of the House
   B. the President Pro Tempore
   C. the President
   D. the Vice President

3. If the President can no longer serve, who becomes President?

4. Who is the President Pro Tempore?

5. Who is the Vice President?

6. How many total votes are cast when the President proclaims a State of Emergency?

7. The Constitution of the United States is divided into how many parts?

8. The Constitution of the United States was adopted in which year?

9. In what year did the first presidential election take place?

10. Who was the first President?

11. What is the official title of the President?

12. When did the Constitution go into effect?

If you wish to, copies are available at the library.

Did You Know...

That this weekend is Glenns Ferry’s very first “Dickens Festival”. The community is taking advantage of the Historic Opera Theater by offering two free performances by Charles Dickens on Saturday, December 10th. So why would our little community in the middle of the western United States decide to celebrate an English author and his works?

In doing a little research, I found the life of Mr. Dickens to be quite relevant to our lives today. Charles Dickens was born in 1812 in England. His father lived beyond his means and was imprisoned when Dickens was very young. As a child, he was forced to leave school and work in a r Bund, a perfect blockade factory to contribute to the family income. This experience was a recurring theme in many of his books. He tried to go back to school but was pulled out once again and at age 15 took a job as an office boy. That job became a launching point for his writing career. He was soon free-lancing for two major London newspapers.

His first novel, Oliver Twist, was written in serial form in newspapers. This particular novel was inspired by Dickens’ personal background. He went on to write an additional twenty books that we are familiar with today: Great Expectations, David Copperfield, A Tale of Two Cities, and A Christmas Carol to mention just a few. These classics have endured nearly 200 years.

In his later years, Dickens toured the United States and was treated as a celebrity. He is quoted as saying “People flock to me as if I were an idol.” These literary tours were a source of income for Dickens and he was able to save money for his retirement years. He is buried at Westminster Abbey.

Do you ever wonder why some literature inspires us generation after generation? It might be because it is filled with hope in the midst of tragedy. When our lives are characterized by the mundane, or tragic situations, perhaps helplessness, we need to be encouraged and inspired. Hope. What a wonderful word! Did you know that you can live 30 days without food, 3 days without water, 3 minutes without air, but only 3 seconds without hope (or so they say). Hope is a necessity in our lives. When Hades are the darkest, it is hope that keeps us going. Perhaps that is why Dickens’ novels have resonated with people for multiple generations.

What do you believe? What are you passionate about? What are you willing to sacrifice to attain your dream? For most of us, life is not easy, but that is what drives us onward and upward.

One winter morning while listening to the radio, Bob and his wife hear the announcer say, “We are ex-...
Dad’s Memory – After School

For a few years, cash flow problems forced Dad to go back to school in High Hill, which really affected my little self. The three towns are Glenns Ferry, which is a mere insect, an ant, in his intellect, as compared with the boundless world within that was made possible by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole of the unseen and indescribable. Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist; and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! how dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias. There would be no child-like faith, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment, except in sense and sight. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished. Not believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies! You might get your papa to hire men to watch in all the chimneys on Christmas Eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did see Santa Claus downing what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are invisible to eyes as well as as invisible to reason. Of course, when we say that anything among the children is invisible to men it is never that’s no proof that they are not there. Nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders there are unseen and unseeable in the world. You may tear apart the baby’s rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest men, nor even the united strength of all the strongest men that were ever lived, could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance, can push aside that curtain and view the supernal beauty and glory behind. Is it all real? Ah, Virginia, in all this world there is nothing else real and abiding. No Santa Claus! Thank God he lives and he lives forever. A thousand years hence, Virginia, may ten times ten thousand times from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood.

“YES, VIRGINIA, THERE IS A SANTA CLAUS”

Eight-year-old Virginia O’Hanlon wrote a letter to the editor of New York’s Sun, and the quick response was printed as an editorial in Dec. 21, 1897. The work of veteran newspaper Francis P. Denny, who had since become history’s most reprinted newspaper editorial, appearing in part or whole in dozens of languages in books, movies, and other editorials, and on posters and stamps.

School Food & Coat Drive

It’s time for the Annual Glenns Ferry Schools’ Food Drive in the Middle and Elementary Schools. Starting on December 5th and continuing until lunch time on the 15th, boxes will be placed in the Elementary School classrooms and the Middle School hallway for the collection of non-perishable foods. On the 15th the boxes will be weighed and the Food Drive classes (Middle School only) with the most food, by weight, will receive a pizza party (to be arranged by the teachers for the convenience of the classes).

All food collected will be picked-up by the VFW for distribution in the local Food Pantry. We are also doing a coat drive for that same period. A drop box will be set up in the foyer for the collection of new or useable coats to be distributed to any child in need. While we are primarily looking for coats for children in the elementary age group (5 to 10 years old), any and all coats brought in will be distributed to families in need.

Thrift Store Gives Back

The Glenns Ferry thrift store on Commercial Street benefits the community in many ways. People from town—and sometimes from as far away as Twin Falls—bring in their used items to be sold. Their local folks and visitors from RV parks in the area come into the store to make purchases.

But what many people may not know is that all the money raised through the nonprofit goes back to the community. Donations are given to the Glenns Ferry Disaster Fund and to projects benefiting local people in need.

Currently, a volunteer staff of four works at the shop, which is open each week from Tuesday through Saturday, with the exception of holidays.

All items in the store are reasonably priced and include everything from CDs to dishes to furniture and more. People are encouraged to donate any items they are no longer using to the thrift store.
