Mayor's Corner

Good afternoon Glenns Ferry! I hope this little note finds you all well. It's beginning to feel a lot like Christmas! Well at least the weather is. I want to wish you all a very happy holiday season. Please stay safe and warm out there this year.

Decorations will start making their way up around town as well as the crew continuing to ensure the list of action items to be worked on, which is getting smaller each week. Just a heads up, the county building inspector will be filling in over the next few months while we look to replace our city building inspector.

There is a new city policy requiring tree removal and trimming to have a permit. There is no charge for this permit, but it will help city staff recognize damage risks and road closure needed to help make this process run smoother. It will also help us to communicate proper disposal plans and methods to mitigate unwanted refuse around town. Thank you for helping us to make Glenns Ferry more inviting and safer!

Thank you,
